2019-2020
Larry Lee Naylor Memorial Scholarship
Announcement

The Department of Anthropology Scholarship Committee is pleased to announce to undergraduates the Larry Lee Naylor Memorial Scholarship for the 2019-2020 academic year. To apply for this scholarship, complete the accompanying form and submit all other required paperwork to the Front Desk of the Anthropology Department (119 Sycamore Hall) by Monday, March 16th at 5:00pm. Please pay careful attention to the scholarship selection criteria and application materials listed below.

Purpose

The purpose of the Larry Lee Naylor Memorial Scholarship is to honor his legacy as the founding chairman of the Anthropology Department at the University of North Texas. As such, it seeks to award academic achievement, personal accomplishment, and leadership. The awardee will receive a $1,000 scholarship and will be recognized at the Awards Ceremony and Dinner on April 16, 2020.

Selection Criteria

1. Applicants must be enrolled as full-time, undergraduate students in Anthropology;
    - Awardee must maintain enrollment of at least 12 hours per semester, unless they have less than 24 semester hours remaining in their degree program.
2. Applicants must have taken at least 3 Anthropology courses (9 hours) and must also have a minimum GPA of 3.0 at UNT at the time of their application (as of 3/16/20);
3. In addition to scholarly accomplishment, application materials must "demonstrate leadership" in some way. Demonstrating leadership does not require applicants to have a "title"
    - Leadership will be measured by accomplishments that forward goals of a group, organization, or other entity that serves the public good, broadly speaking.
    - Examples of leadership include, but are not limited to, involvement in a student organization at UNT or extensive volunteer activity either through a UNT organization or an organization in the greater community.
4. Special consideration will be given to students who can describe a significant obstacle that they have overcome on their way to academic and personal achievement.

Application Materials

1. The application form (next page) with all fields completed
2. An up-to-date resume or CV (curriculum vitae)
3. A personal statement of approximately 500 words, single-spaced, single side only, explaining how your achievements fit the criteria described above. Do highlight significant academic achievements, but focus especially on personal and leadership criteria.
    - The personal statement should be printed separately from the application form, with your name printed clearly on the document.
4. One letter of recommendation that specifically addresses the personal & leadership component of this scholarship application. The writer should be in a position to evaluate and speak knowledgeably about your contributions.
5. A copy of your unofficial transcript, with all of the anthropological courses you have taken highlighted for visibility.

Please place all application materials in a folder marked with your name and date. Applications that are late, emailed, and/or incomplete will not be accepted. Please email any questions to Dr. Johnson: jamie.johnson@unt.edu.
