

Larry Lee Naylor Memorial Scholarship Academic Year 2018-2019

The Department of Anthropology Scholarship Committee is pleased to announce to undergraduates the Larry Naylor Memorial Scholarship for the CURRENT (2018-2019) academic year. If you would like to be considered for this scholarship please fill out the accompanying form and submit all other required paperwork to the Front Desk of the Anthropology Department (330Q Chilton Hall) by 5:00 PM, Monday, December 3rd. Applications that are late, emailed, and/or incomplete will not be accepted. Please pay careful attention to the scholarship award criteria and instructions listed below.

Purpose

The purpose of the Larry Lee Naylor Memorial Scholarship is to honor his legacy as the founding chairman of the Anthropology Department at the University of North Texas. As such, it seeks to award academic achievement, personal accomplishment, and leadership. The awardee will receive a $1,000.00 dollar scholarship and will be honored in person.

Selection Criteria

1. Applicants must be enrolled as full-time undergraduate students in the Anthropology Department
2. Awardee must maintain full time enrollment of at least 12 hours per semester, unless s/he has less than 24 semester hours remaining in his/her degree program
3. Applicants must have taken at least 3 anthropology courses (9 hours) and must also have at least a minimum GPA of 3.0 at UNT at the time of their application for the Naylor Scholarship
4. Applicants must demonstrate “leadership” in some way. “Demonstrating leadership” does not require that the applicant have a “title.” Leadership will be measured by accomplishments that forward goals of a group, organization, or other entity that serves the public good, broadly speaking. Examples of leadership include, but are not limited to, involvement in a student organization at UNT, extensive volunteer activity either through a UNT organization or an organization in the greater community.
5. Special consideration will be given to students who can describe a significant obstacle that they have overcome on their way to academic and personal achievement.

Application Materials

1. The application form (next page) with all fields completed
2. A statement of approximately 500 words, double-spaced, single side only explaining how your achievements fit the criteria described above. Please focus on personal and leadership criteria. This statement should be on separate sheets of paper, with your name in the upper right hand corner.
3. An up-to-date resume or CV
4. A letter of recommendation that specifically addresses the leadership component of this scholarship application. The writer should be in a position to evaluate and speak knowledgeably about your contributions.
5. A copy of your unofficial transcript, with all of the anthropological courses you have taken highlighted.
