

Anthropology & Public Health

Anthropology that matter: Understanding people and HIV/AIDS

How I use Anthropology in my work

What I do

- Conduct formative research
- Co-author primary reports
- Data collection
- Garner community support
- Create training manuals
- Assist in training
- Supervise data collection
- Data collection - interview

How Anthropology Prepared me

- Learned qualitative and quantitative skills
- How to create and conduct interviews
- Analyze data
- Interdisciplinary collaboration
- Project management
- Build relationships
- Holistic perspectives

Projects I work on

National HIV Behavioral Surveillance

MSM, IDU and HET- Cycle 5 and Transgender Pilot

Parkland Memorial Hospital

HIV and Depression Pilot

Ana Belen Conrado, M.S.

Community Prevention and Intervention Unit