COURSE DESCRIPTION

The goal of this course is to provide an anthropological framework for exploring key ideas and concepts related to Latin America, specifically the idea Other and alterity, (neo)colonialism, ontological conflicts, and mixing, from historic and contemporary perspectives. In particular, we will critically analyze the dominant culture groups that have comprised this region, and specific issues related to conquest, religion, indigenism, peasants and social movements, race, tourism, environmental conflicts, violence, and migration.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Analyze contemporary issues that affect Latin America and the Caribbean through the lens of anthropology.
- Recognize and identify the interrelationship among the various socio-geographical, political, creative, and philosophical developments in Latin American.
- Position course themes and topics within a larger framework of anthropological theory.
- Critically discuss a range of historical and contemporary issues as they relate to Latin America.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The first class will be a presentation of the course syllabus and schedule, and the moment for the students to present themselves and their expectations. In the other classes we are going to discuss the concepts and theories related to the readings, do practical exercises, and explore audiovisual material. Bring your comments or comments and ideas about the readings and topics! I recommend all the students to read the texts before the classes – also so you can deliver the weekly Reading Assignments (see the ASSIGNMENTS AND FINAL EXAM section).

ASSIGNMENTS AND FINAL EXAM

The evaluation will be based on Assignments that must be delivered during the course (check the COURSE SCHEDULE), 1 Final Exam, and class attendance.

Student Introduction – 20 points

In the first class, you must introduce yourself, including what are your interests in this course and what you expect to learn. If you have some issue and for some reason cannot attend the first class, please email the Instructional Assistant.

Reading Assignments – 10 points each (up to 130 possible points)

From the 2nd week to the 15th week, you must deliver 1 short weekly assignment on Canvas related at least to one of the readings. They will be due always on Sundays, on the materials for the week ahead, by 11:59 pm. This assignment is designed to help you think about the readings as we go, pull important quotes, and prepare for class discussion. It will also help you prepare for your Final Exam.

You must write at least two paragraphs about one of the readings of that week. Look for the main ideas, concepts, and theories of the reading to write about.

Feel free to personally reflect on the readings, and to connect course content with happenings in the world around us right now.

Video Comments – 150 points each (up to 300 possible points)

During the course, you will present 2 written essays about 2 videos. I indicate the videos in the ADDITIONAL MATERIALS section. You must watch the videos between classes.

Each essay must have 300 – 500 words and must include: i) the context that the video refers to; ii) how this context dialogues with the concepts and theories of at least 2 readings of this course, and the discussions during the class in general.

Don't forget to add a Reference List at the end. The Reference List does not count toward the 300 - 500 words.

Feel free to connect course content with happenings in the world around us right now.

Core Writing Assignments – 10 points each (up to 20 possible points)

Following the UNT Core Curriculum, all students enrolled in the ANTH 3200 – Latin America needs to be evaluated in terms of Developing Critical Thinking, Communication Skills, Social Responsibility, and Personal Responsibility, as part of the Language, Philosophy, and Culture Core.

You will deliver 2 Core Writing Assignments. Answers to each of these must be approximately 5-6 sentences long.

Final Exam: Written Report – 300 possible points

For the Final Exam, you must pick a situation or problem that is relevant in Latin America nowadays. I suggest that you begin to look for it in the 12th week of the course. You can look on social media, newspapers, and even official documents and websites. If you have difficulties finding a case, please contact the Instructor at least until April 17th, 2023.

You will prepare a Written Report and will upload it on Canvas by May 8th, 2023.

The essay must have at least 3 pages (Times New Roman 12, Space 1.5), excluding the Reference List at the end.

The essay must include:

- i) a general presentation/description (including location or locations) of the situation or problem, including how you heard about it.
- ii) analyze anthropologically the situation/problem utilizing at least 4 readings from this course
Do not forget to mention the concepts/theories that you learn from these readings. The Readings Assignments and the notes you take during classes will help you.
- iii) design a strategy to present this situation/problem to representatives of the Organization of American States \(OAS\)
Describe the way and format you would present this report to representatives of OAS, mentioning which aspects and features of the situation/problem you would highlight and why.
- iv) Reference List, following the Chicago Style Guide, or another guide of your preference.

You can use other readings for this essay, but you must use at least 4 readings from this course.

If you miss the deadline for the Final Exam for any reason than those which are excused (see the COURSE POLICIES – Credit Make-Up Policy session), you can submit the Final Exam on Canvas until May 11th, 2023:

1 day late – less 50 points (total possible points: 200)

2 days late – less 100 points (total possible points: 150)

3 days late – less 150 points (total possible points: 100)

Attendance – 5 points each (up to 120 possible points)

For each class that you attend you will receive 5 points for a maximum of 120 points total (this means that if you miss 4 classes you still receive the 120 points).

GRADES

You can earn up to 900 points. All grades will be assigned based on the following grading scale:

You can contact me via email at karine.narahara@unt.edu. All emails must be submitted from your UNT e-mail address. Include the course number and section (ANTH 3200 SECTION 100) in the subject line along with the topic of the email. Please give me 24 hours to respond before you send a follow-up email during the week, and until Monday if you send an email on the weekend.

Extra Credit

An extra 10 points will be offered if you show evidence that you did the “SPOT” evaluation for this course. Other extra credit may be made available periodically throughout the semester. Don’t forget to check on Canvas for updates on this!

Withdrawing

If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by the University—designated date (for a “W”). Withdrawing from a course is a formal procedure that you must initiate. The Professor cannot do it for you. If you simply stop attending or stop doing the assignments and do not withdraw, you will receive a final performance grade of 0 or “F”.

Credit Make-Up Policy

Late assignments will not be accepted unless you show a legitimate reason (i. e., medical reasons, family emergency, religious observance, University-excused academic or athletic event, work-related absences that have been discussed with the professor - UNT’s policy on authorized absences may be found here). Allowing alternative arrangements in such instances is entirely at the discretion of the Professor and Instructional Assistant.

Missing assignments or those submitted late as a result of an unexcused absence will result in a 0 (zero). Likewise, assignments will only be accepted if submitted through acceptable means (i.e. no emails).

Academy Honesty

For papers and assignments, cite your sources and do original work. This cannot be stressed enough. The Department of Anthropology does not tolerate plagiarism, cheating, or helping others to cheat. Students suspected of any of these will be provided the opportunity for a hearing; a guilty finding will merit an automatic “F” in the course. In addition, I reserve the right to pursue further disciplinary action within the UNT legal system, which may result in dismissal from the university. Plagiarism is defined as misrepresenting the work of others (whether published or not) as your own. It may be inadvertent or intentional. Any facts, statistics, quotations, or paraphrasing of any information that is not common knowledge, should be cited. For more information on paper writing, including how to avoid plagiarism, and how to use citations, see <http://www.unt.edu/csrr/>. For information on the University’s policies regarding academic integrity and dishonesty, see the UNT Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities, <http://www.unt.edu/csrr/>.

Copyright

Some or all of the materials in this course may be protected by copyright. Federal copyright law prohibits the reproduction, distribution, public performance, or public display of copyrighted materials without the express and written permission of the copyright owner unless fair use or another exemption under copyright law applies.

Policy on Server Unavailability or Other Technical Issues

The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. In the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time-sensitive assessment activity, the Professor and the Instructional Assistant may extend the time windows at their discretion and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the Instructional Assistant and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or (940) 565-2324. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues, but please be aware that this may take some time.

APPENDIX 1: UNT POLICIES

Academic Integrity Policy

According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University. See <https://policy.unt.edu/policy/06-003>

ADA Policy

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information, refer to the Office of Disability Access website at <https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/office-disability-access>. You may also contact ODA by phone at (940) 565-4323.

The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

Emergency Notification & Procedures

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. Students have the right to view their individual record; however, information about student's records will not be divulged to other individuals without proper written consent. Students are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the University's policy. See UNT Policy 10.10, Records Management and Retention for additional information.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT's Code of Student Conduct (<https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct>) to learn more.

Access to Information - Eagle Connect

Students' access point for business and academic services at UNT is located at: my.unt.edu. All official communication from the University will be delivered to a student's Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward e-mail Eagle Connect (<https://it.unt.edu/eagleconnect>).

Student Evaluation Administration Dates

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website (<http://spot.unt.edu/>) or email spot@unt.edu.

Survivor Advocacy

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct. Federal laws and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex as well as sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-5652648.

Use of Student Work

A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g. software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the student's permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

- The work is used only once.
