

give a year.
change the world.

ANTHROPOLOGY AND CITY YEAR

50%

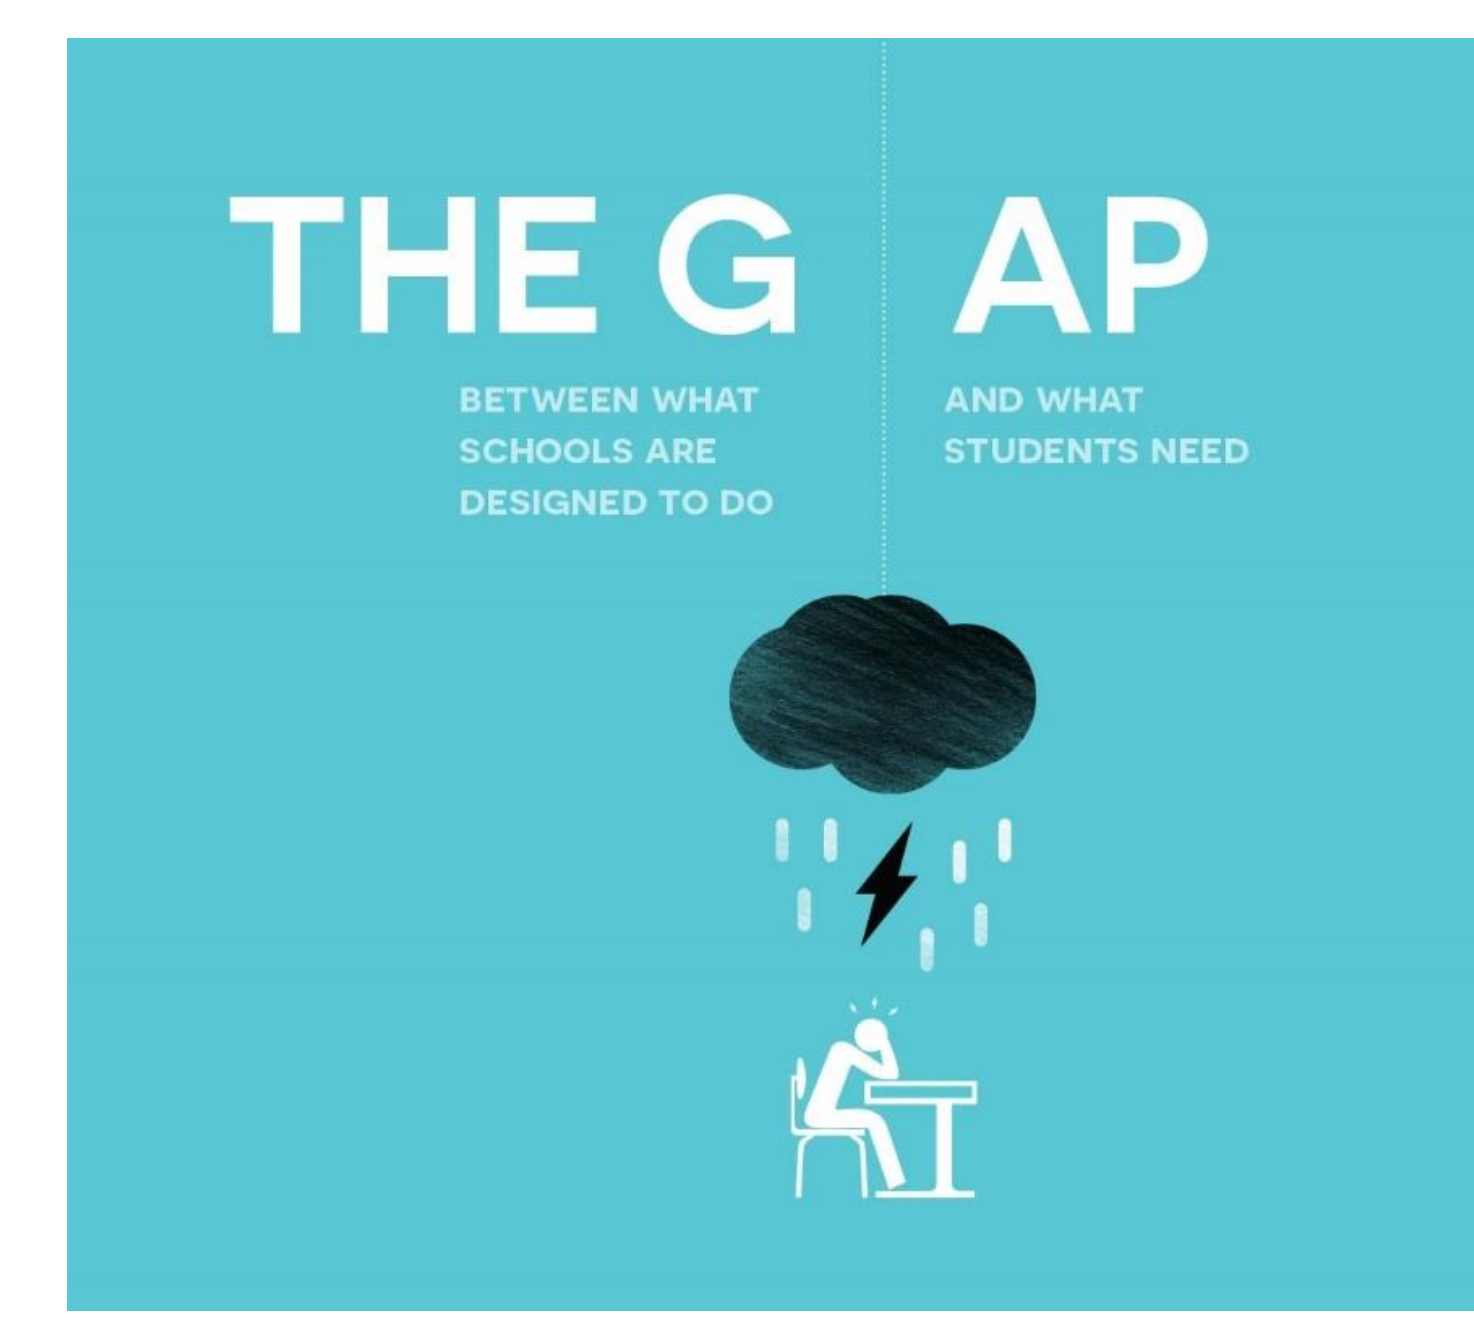

OF THE 1 MILLION STUDENTS WHO DROP OUT EACH YEAR

COME FROM ONLY

12%

OF SCHOOLS

About City Year:

- Corps members serve 11 months in high-poverty public schools in 28 major cities
- Diverse teams of young people, or "near-peers," work to bridge the education gap
- Examines the external factors inhibiting school performance such as food and housing insecurity

What I Do:

- tutor and mentor students in ELA, attendance and social-emotional literacy
- track data
- collaborate with teachers and parents- Whole School, Whole Child model, attend PLC meetings with teachers
- create lesson plans
- help run afterschool creative writing club
- power greet in the morning

Transferable Anthro Skills

- knowledge of navigating a diverse, unfamiliar setting
- cultural competency/sensitivity
- strong interpersonal communication skills
- active listening
- gathering and interpreting data
- written and verbal communication

By Orsolya Ficsor