Course Description:
Considering the current climate, this course will focus on activism and advocacy in the African American (AA) and African diaspora community. Anthropologists, particularly AA anthropologists, have a long history in advocacy work. We are going to trace this work beginning with theory and methods in critical analysis. We will also explore AA and African diaspora contributions to the American way of life and the ongoing battle for recognition, life, liberty, and justice in their communities. The experience of AA and African diaspora populations will be filtered through the lenses of racialization, self-determination, and systemic marginalization. This course will include all the elements necessary for a publishable journal article or conference paper and a final poster presentation.

Learning Objectives:
Upon successful completion of this course, learners will be able to:

1. Apply anthropological theories and critical race theory to political, social, and economic problems in African diaspora and African American (AA) communities.
2. Identify the role anthropologists played in racializing AA and the role race plays in anthropology today.
3. Articulate how anthropologists contributed and continue to contribute to social movements, and how their continued activism highlights AA resilience and struggle to maintain harmony in their communities.
4. Critically analyze social movements and advocacy groups (Civil Rights Movement, Black Panther Party, Black Lives Matter, etc.) including their purpose and impact on AA and African diaspora communities.
5. Describe key figures in social movements impacting AA and African diaspora communities, including Frederick Douglass, W.E.B. DuBois, Booker T. Washington, George Washington Carver, Marcus Garvey Jr., Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Malcolm X, Cornel West, Alicia Garve, Opal Tometi, Patrisse Cullors, etc.
6. Critique material that shows the marginalization, disenfranchisement, and/or discrimination of members in the AA or African Diaspora community.
7. Create a finals project that analyzes or evaluates an aspect of African Diaspora populations.

Course Texts:
All course readings will be uploaded to Canvas for your convenience. There is no primary text for this class. However, a bibliography of books, chapters, and articles used in this course is provided at the end of this syllabus. These readings are subject to change. Changes to assigned readings will be made at least one week in advance. These changes will also be announced in class and posted to Canvas.

Course Prerequisite:
There are no required prerequisites for this course. However, in order to be successful in this course you will need to:
- Follow instructions on assignment rubrics.
- Cite sources, giving credit to where you obtain information.
- Communicate with others through discussions and utilize tact when offered differing perspectives.
- Make the commitment to spend at least five hours a week reading the assignments, reflecting on the material covered, and participating in other activities throughout the course.

Course Structure:
The first session will be an introduction to the course syllabus, student expectations, and teacher expectations. You will also have a discussion question to get you thinking about race and power. In all future sessions, I will typically provide a lecture covering the topic of the day during the first 60 minutes of class. Students are encouraged to ask questions and provide input during lectures. Twenty minutes will be allotted for in-class discussions of the lecture and assigned readings. The last 90 minutes of the session will be treated as an opportunity for group work. You will work with your group on your publication and final project in class every Wednesday. I will also work with you all in class to make sure everyone is on the same page. All lectures will be recorded on Zoom and posted within 24 hours on Canvas.

Course Website:
All course materials, readings, and other resources necessary for this course will be available on Canvas. All assignments must be submitted through Canvas. All questions and correspondence must be submitted to my UNT e-mail directly or through Canvas. Please use your UNT e-mail ONLY to correspond with me.

Evaluation:
There will be many opportunities for you to sharpen your critical thinking skills in this class. Your assignments and final project will all require critical thinking. All work must be completed using Microsoft Word, 12-point font, double-spaced, 1-inch margins (top, bottom, right, and left).

Class Participation: (15% of total grade)
As there are only 15 days that we meet this semester. Each day (in-person or Zoom) is worth 10 points. You will need to participate in classroom discussions by posting on Zoom or commenting in class. Please communicate with me if you are having trouble attending class. I cannot accommodate you if you do not communicate with me.

Abstracts: (8% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
You will submit your abstract as a group twice for a total of 80 points. An abstract is a short synopsis or your work and your findings. The first draft is always incomplete. Hence, you will submit your abstract twice. Your abstract must be between 150 and 200 words. Use the Abstract Rubric for guidance. I will not take off points if you go over on the first draft. You will be able to submit your abstract three times as a group. Your last draft must meet the word requirement. I will address each group independently regarding any comments I have concerning you all’s work. All assignments are due on Thursdays at 11:59pm.

Introductions (10% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
In your introduction, you will provide a problem statement, outline the current research, discuss your contribution to the research, state your question(s) and hypotheses, and provide a road map for your study. We will go over each one of these section in class and I will provide several examples for you all to follow. You may submit your introduction three times as a group. Use the Introduction Rubric for guidance. I will address each group independently regarding any comments I have concerning you all’s work. All assignments are due on Thursdays at 11:59pm.
Literature Reviews (15% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
Literature reviews allow you to critically evaluate the work of those who came before you. This is your opportunity to inform yourself and locate any gaps in the research. This is where you demonstrate that you understand what others have said before you. You may submit your literature reviews three times as a group. Use the Literature Review Rubric for guidance. I will address each group independently regarding any comments I have concerning you all’s work. All assignments are due on Thursdays at 11:59pm.

Materials (5% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
In the materials sections, you will discuss what data you will use in your project. This data needs to be readily available. I will help you all find data for your projects. You will need to discuss why you chose these data and how they relate to your questions or research problem. You may submit your materials section three times as a group. Use the Materials Rubric for guidance. I will address each group independently regarding any comments I have concerning you all’s work. All assignments are due on Thursdays at 11:59pm.

Methods (10% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
In the methods section, you will discuss how your data will be gathered and what types of data will be gathered. You may submit your methods section three times as a group. Use the Methods Rubric for guidance. I will address each group independently regarding any comments I have concerning you all’s work. All assignments are due on Thursdays at 11:59pm.

Results/Findings (10% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
The results section is simply for results. You will layout your significant findings. No findings are findings. Also, all findings will tell you something about the problem you are researching. You may submit your results three times as a group. Use the Results Rubric for guidance. I will address each group independently regarding any comments I have concerning you all’s work. All assignments are due on Thursdays at 11:59pm.

Discussions (10% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
The discussion section is the space where you discuss your results or findings. This is where you tell the reader what your results mean. This is also where you discuss whether or not your questions where answered and/or your hypothesis confirmed or falsified. You may submit your discussion three times as a group. Use the Discussion Rubric for guidance. I will address each group independently regarding any comments I have concerning you all’s work. All assignments are due on Thursdays at 11:59pm.

Conclusions (5% of total grade; due by 11:59PM on Thursdays)
It is in the conclusion that we summarize our findings and discuss future endeavors. It is also in this space that we critique our own work. What could you have done differently? What worked? What didn’t work?

Core Assessment (2% of total grade, due by 11:59PM on Thursday)
These are mandatory core assessment questions that assess communication, social responsibility, critical thinking, and personal responsibility. They are worth 20 points.

Final Project Poster Presentations: (10% of total grade; due by 11:59 PM on Thursday)
The final project presentation is worth 100 points. You will present your work during the last week of classes in a poster format. Refer to the Final Project Poster Rubric for more details.

Please take these assignments seriously as they make up a sizable portion of your total grade. All assignments are due on Thursdays. I will not accept late assignments without prior notification or a legitimate excuse.

Assignment Policy:
The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Class Recordings & Student Likenesses
Synchronous (live) sessions in this course will be recorded for students enrolled in this class section to refer to throughout the semester. Class recordings are the intellectual property of the university or instructor and are reserved for use only by students in this class and only for educational purposes. Students may not post or otherwise share the recordings outside the class, or outside the Canvas Learning Management System, in any form. Failing to follow this restriction is a violation of the UNT Code of Student Conduct and could lead to disciplinary action.

Course Policies

Contacting the Professor:
I am available on Mondays and Wednesdays from 10:00-11:30 AM on Zoom, by appointment, and/or via email at kimberly.wren@unt.edu. All emails must be submitted from your UNT e-mail address. Please give me 24 hours to respond before you send a follow-up email during the week and 48 hours on the weekend.

Face Coverings
UNT encourages everyone to wear a face covering when indoors, regardless of vaccination status, to protect yourself and others from COVID infection, as recommended by current CDC guidelines. Face covering guidelines could change based on community health conditions.

Attendance
Students are expected to attend class meetings regularly and to abide by the attendance policy established for the course. It is important that you communicate with the professor and the instructional team prior to being absent, so you, the professor, and the instructional team can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of course learning goals. Please inform the professor and instructional team if you are unable to attend class meetings because you are ill, in mindfulness of the health and safety of everyone in our community.

If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus. UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Team at COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure.
Class Participation
Late Work
Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have shown that there is a legitimate (i.e., medical emergency, loss of a family member, work, etc.) reason your work is late.

Examination Policy
There are no exams in this class.

Assignment Policy
All assignment due dates are posted on Canvas. They are also on the course schedule at the end of this syllabus.

Extra Credit
Extra credit might be offered on some assignments.

Server Outage and Technical Difficulty
The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Instructor Responsibilities and Feedback
Include a statement:

• After having completed an assignment, you should expect to see your grade (with feedback, if applicable) within 7 days (1 week).

Withdrawal
If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by the University-designated date (for a “W” with instructor approval). Withdrawing from a course is a formal procedure that YOU must initiate. I cannot do it for you. If you simply stop attending and do not withdraw, you will receive a performance grade, usually an “F”.

Virtual Classroom Citizenship
The same guidelines that apply to traditional classes should be observed in the virtual classroom environment. Please use proper netiquette when interacting with class members and the professor.

Copyright
Some or all of the materials on this course Web site may be protected by copyright. Federal copyright law prohibits the reproduction, distribution, public performance, or public display of copyrighted materials without the express and written permission of the copyright owner, unless fair use or another exemption under copyright law applies.

UNT Policies

University Policy on Student Academic Integrity: (Policy and Procedures number 06.003)

Academic Misconduct: “Academic Misconduct,” in this policy, means the intentional or unintentional action by a student to engage in behavior in the academic setting including, but not limited to: cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic misconduct, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage.

A. Cheating: “Cheating,” in this policy, means the use of unauthorized assistance in an academic exercise, including but not limited to: 1. use of any unauthorized assistance to take exams, tests, quizzes, or other assessments; 2. use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; 3. use, without permission, of tests, notes, or other academic materials belonging to instructors, staff members, or other students of the University; 4. dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor; 5. any act designed to give a student an unfair advantage on an academic assignment.

B. Fabrication: “Fabrication,” in this policy, means falsifying or inventing any information, data, or research outside of a defined academic exercise.

C. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty (i.e. collusion): “Facilitating academic dishonesty,” in this policy, means helping or assisting another in the commission of academic dishonesty.

D. Forgery: “Forgery,” in this policy, means intentionally falsifying or altering a score, grade, or official academic University record or the signature of another.

E. Plagiarism: “Plagiarism,” in this policy, means use of another’s thoughts or words without proper attribution in any academic exercise, regardless of the student’s intent, including but not limited to: 1. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment or citation, or 2. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or by an agency engaged in selling term papers or other academic materials.

F. Sabotage: “Sabotage,” in this policy, means acting to prevent others from completing their work or willfully disrupting the academic work of others.

Department Policy on Student Academic Integrity:
The Department of Anthropology expects its students to abide by the high ethical standards of practicing professionals within the field of anthropology. The Department does not tolerate cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, or sabotage. This includes the use of unauthorized professional writing/editing services and generative AI for assignments. Students are expected to follow the American Anthropological Association’s code of ethics: “In their capacity as researchers, anthropologists are subject to the ethical principles guiding all scientific and scholarly conduct. They must not plagiarize, nor fabricate or falsify evidence, or knowingly misrepresent information or its source” (http://ethics.americananthro.org/category/statement/).

Students are encouraged to use the UNT Writing Center. For additional resources to help with paper writing, including how to avoid plagiarism and how to use citations, see the Department of Anthropology Writing Guide. For information on the University’s policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and dishonesty, see the UNT Student Academic Integrity policy.

Course Policy and Procedures on Student Academic Integrity:
First time student offenders who commit academic dishonesty will receive a zero on the assignment in which academic dishonesty was found. Students suspected of multiple academic dishonesty offenses will be provided the opportunity for a hearing; a guilty finding will merit an automatic “F” in the course.

ADA Policy
UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one’s specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website (https://disability.unt.edu/).

Prohibition of Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation (Policy 16.004)
The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.
Emergency Notification & Procedures
UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records
Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. Students have the right to view their individual record; however, information about student’s records will not be divulged to other individuals without proper written consent. Students are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the University’s policy. See UNT Policy 10.10, Records Management and Retention for additional information.

Acceptable Student Behavior
Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University’s expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT’s Code of Student Conduct (https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct) to learn more.

Access to Information - Eagle Connect
Students’ access point for business and academic services at UNT is located at: my.unt.edu. All official communication from the University will be delivered to a student’s Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward e-mail Eagle Connect (https://it.unt.edu/eagleconnect).

Student Evaluation Administration Dates
Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 [insert administration dates] of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website (http://spot.unt.edu/) or email spot@unt.edu.

Survivor Advocacy
UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct. Federal laws and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex as well as sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-5652648.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses
Federal Regulation:
To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (http://www.ecfr.gov/). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G).
For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student’s physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student’s course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student’s full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance:
To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student’s responsibility to do the following:

1. Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.

2. Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

Student Verification
UNT takes measures to protect the integrity of educational credentials awarded to students enrolled in distance education courses by verifying student identity, protecting student privacy, and notifying students of any special meeting times/locations or additional charges associated with student identity verification in distance education courses.

See UNT Policy 07-002 Student Identity Verification, Privacy, and Notification and Distance Education Courses (https://policy.unt.edu/policy/07-002).

Use of Student Work
A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g. software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the student’s permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

- The work is used only once.
- The work is not used in its entirety.
- Use of the work does not affect any potential profits from the work.
- The student is not identified.
- The work is identified as student work.

If the use of the work does not meet all of the above criteria, then the University office or department using the work must obtain the student’s written permission.

Download the UNT System Permission, Waiver and Release Form
Transmission and Recording of Student Images in Electronically-Delivered Courses

1. No permission is needed from a student for his or her image or voice to be transmitted live via videoconference or streaming media, but all students should be informed when courses are to be conducted using either method of delivery.

2. In the event an instructor records student presentations, he or she must obtain permission from the student using a signed release in order to use the recording for future classes in accordance with the Use of Student-Created Work guidelines above.

3. Instructors who video-record their class lectures with the intention of re-using some or all of recordings for future class offerings must notify students on the course syllabus if students’ images may appear on video. Instructors are also advised to provide accommodation for students who do not wish to appear in class recordings.

Example: This course employs lecture capture technology to record class sessions. Students may occasionally appear on video. The lecture recordings will be available to you for study purposes and may also be reused in future course offerings.

No notification is needed if only audio and slide capture is used or if the video only records the instructor’s image. However, the instructor is encouraged to let students know the recordings will be available to them for study purposes.

Academic Support & Student Services

Student Support Services

Mental Health

UNT provides mental health resources to students to help ensure there are numerous outlets to turn to that wholeheartedly care for and are there for students in need, regardless of the nature of an issue or its severity. Listed below are several resources on campus that can support your academic success and mental well-being:

- Student Health and Wellness Center
- Counseling and Testing Services
- UNT Care Team

- Individual Counseling

Chosen Names

A chosen name is a name that a person goes by that may or may not match their legal name. If you have a chosen name that is different from your legal name and would like that to be used in class, please let the instructor know. Below is a list of resources for updating your chosen name at UNT.

- UNT Records
- UNT ID Card
- UNT Email Address
- Legal Name

UNT euIDs cannot be changed at this time. The collaborating offices are working on a process to make this option accessible to UNT community members.
Pronouns

Pronouns (she/her, they/them, he/him, etc.) are a public way for people to address you, much like your name, and can be shared with a name when making an introduction, both virtually and in-person. Just as we ask and don’t assume someone’s name, we should also ask and not assume someone’s pronouns.

You can add your pronouns to your Canvas account so that they follow your name when posting to discussion boards, submitting assignments, etc.

Below is a list of additional resources regarding pronouns and their usage:

- What are pronouns and why are they important?
- How do I use pronouns?
- How do I share my pronouns?
- How do I ask for another person’s pronouns?
- How do I correct myself or others when the wrong pronoun is used?
